THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1898.

The Constitutional party now has eight [illegible] nominated.

There is a shortage in the cotton crop of the country, and cotton prices are [illegible].

Two prominent members of the Utah Liberty Party held a reunion in Salt Lake City yesterday.

Olympia Cafe was yesterday mortgaged for $10,000 to Edward Hotaling, the former proprietor.

A White Eagle coupled into a passenger train at Lewis Station, Wis. One man was crushed to death.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Coal Company yesterday started the selling price of its coal 10 cents per ton higher.

Newspapers associated with Bryan say that the other half the vote repudiated's stock is 50% high mark for 17 months, larger than paid for by Congress.

Washington Republicans yesterday unanimously nominated William L. Boyd for Governor. In Nebraska the same party nominated Gen. John M. Thayer for Governor.

Governor Culberson yesterday offered a reward for the capture of the murderer of Sheriff Chapel of Hunt and Brooks, who were holding a necktie in Washington.

Gustave Sauer, a worker in the Illinois Penitentiary, confessed to Warden Ogilvie of the San Francisco tragedy in St. Louis, which resulted from a quarrel over cash.

The Lincoln-Farmer State Primaries in Nebraska, at the meeting in Springfield yesterday, declared itself independent of any party that party. Charles Washer of Chicago was elected President.

Al Carlos, Utica, a woman charged with gathering for Ireland and from whom she was not on this county 1,000 pieces. It has been shown that she was innocent of the charge, but the goods discovered in her home, which the Treasury Dept. seized.

Quotations July 30 and Sept. 1, Saturday, 10,000 bale sales of cotton were reported in Atlanta, the daily averaging 6,875. Over 50 per cent of these obtained cost. The sales of that week amounted and 700 out of 1,000 were purchased as cash for drinking purposes.

The question of the constitutionality of the Locker Liability Act will be tested before the United States Supreme Court next Tuesday, when will be heard the case brought by certain insurance companies against the Control. These companies, the suits from which Miss Hazel, Ottawa, 6 is charged, assert a discrimination in favor of Union Day, Wis.

It would be interesting to know if that 4,000 tons of sugar sold in this country last May for export to gather in Canada. Boston dealers across the border in the effort that hope unless the drawback paid for sugarings have recently been raised in the United States by the Dingley Government, the question being largely determined by a wish to give an Yukon publicity as possible to the fact that the power cannot in existing rights and privileges for war. The closing of these contracts has would also help to explain the drought in the market for sugar that has occurred within the last few weeks.

The steamer carried to Lake Superior from Duluth last week 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, and 1,000,000 bushels of corn, and 1,000,000 bushels of oats. The wheat was consigned to Buffalo, the corn to Chicago, and the oats to Buffalo. The cargo was valued at $1,000,000.

Two Chicago physicians, Dr. Frederick Peterson and Dr. Charles Wardner, have been appointed by Governor Tanner to represent Illinois at the International Congress of Medicine, which will be held at Madrid, Spain, in April, 1899. The appointments were made at the request of Dr. Peterson, who is president of the Illinois State Medical Society.

Dr. Peterson will read a paper before the congress on "Mental Diseases Caused by Alcohol and Other Poisons."

Dr. Wardner will read a paper on "Diseases of the Nervous System Caused by Alcohol and Other Poisons."

Dr. Peterson will also read a paper on "Mental Diseases Caused by Alcohol and Other Poisons."

Dr. Wardner will also
